Behavioral Guidelines

In all we do at each/every youth event, we keep in mind that God is present, and that we represent God and the Church to each other and to the outside world looking in. We agree that all those present at this event are considered participants and agree to abide by these guidelines and to:

- Be part of all scheduled activities at the event in conjunction with our group leaders.
- Be quiet and inside our own rooms during the listed curfew, when applicable.
- Have adult supervision while in rooms when mixed genders are present.
- Adhere to the dress code of modest and appropriate clothing. Should questions arise regarding modesty and appropriateness of dress, the adult leader will have the final say.
- Report any illness or personal emergency to an adult leader immediately.
- Never go out alone. We will keep our doors closed at all times, whenever possible.
- Not do anything that might jeopardize the enjoyment or safety of ourselves, other participants, or guests at the event.
- Make sure that our group leaders know where we are, at all times. We will not leave the event or venue without our leader's permissions.

- We understand that if we damage anything at the event, we (not Midlothian Baptist or Fusion Youth) will be responsible for working with the events coordinators and will fully pay for the repair or replacement of said item(s).
- We understand that any and all illegal activity by event participants is prohibited both on and off site during the event.
- We understand that by registering for this event, we agree to allow Fusion Youth to take photographs/video before, during, and after the event and to use them for promotional purposes.

If we choose to not follow these guidelines, we understand and accept the consequences decided upon by our adult leaders.
